DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the “common opening...which extends from the housing shoulder (5) to the contact surface (6)” recited in claim 1 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 6 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. The entirety of claim 6 can be found in claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 1 recites "common opening...which extends from the housing shoulder (5) to the contact surface (6)" in lines 10-12. The disclosure, as originally filed, fails to disclose that the common opening o the housing shoulder and the piezo-element extends to the contact surface (6).

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3752

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 2-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The preamble of claims 2-6 is inconsistent with that of their parent claim.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the setting path x" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the displacement charge Q" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the displacement current" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the intermediate values" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the setting path x" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "piezo-element" in lines 4-5. It appears to be a double inclusion of the "piezo-element" recited in claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3752

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1, 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ruehle et al. (DE 199 54 537 A1).

Ruehle discloses an injection nozzle having:

- a nozzle needle 5;
- a nozzle opening 36;
- a spring 21;
- a housing shoulder 11;
- a contact surface 23 of the nozzle needle 5;
- a piezo-element 3;
- a common opening 6;

Regarding claims 3-5, the recitation "can be" merely requires the ability to perform. It does not constitute a positively recited limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ruehle et al. (DE 199 54 537 A1).

Art Unit: 3752

Ruehle discloses the limitations of the claimed invention with the exception of how the piezo-element is electrically connected. It is inherent that Ruechle's piezo-element has a first and second electrical connectors. There are only a limited number of possibilities of how the connections are made. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have connected the first and second connectors to the first and second faces of the piezo-element in the device of Ruechle for ease in wiring.
